Where Are They?

We have heard more than one remark, that the city was never so dull during the session of any previous legislature, as it is at present. The saloons that were once the scenes of liveliness in which jocose and scheming "lobby members" were wont to exercise their most effective batteries, have now the quietness and staidness of a non-paying railroad office, and the bluff-mannered and merry hearted men that fell good humored victims to the passion of drinking healths "all round" are now few. Where are they? those jovial members that made the midnight air bear the light burden of enlivening songs. Alas! they are no longer "a terror to the foe," and have ceased to proclaim the fact in heart-stirring strains. They may continue to do it in some other city, but here the "Good Templars," the serious influence of the times, or the freezing shock that bribery has received, has apparently cleaned out everything approaching in the least to excess or dissipation. Although the legislature is in session, the city is just as quiet and respectable as usual, and we are informed by some reliable liquor dealers that their sales of the "medicinal" are not increased one drop. Strange! Is'nt it?—Madison Patriot (Dem.)

It is "instructive to remark," by way of comment upon the above gratifying announcement, that the present is the first year in the history of Wisconsin, that the Republicans have had the ascendancy in each Department of the State Government, as in both branches of the Legislature. The result, as the Patriot informs us, is, that the "saloons" are deserted, the "lobby" empty, and quiet, good order and sobriety the prevailing feature of Life at the Capitol.

NEWSPAPERS IN A BLAZE.—The fire which occurred in New York last Sunday morning was particularly destructive to newspapers. The fire broke out at 113 Fulton street, in the building occupied by ROBERT BONNER, the proprietor of the Ledger. His loss is about $30,000; insured for $20,000. This week's issue for the country circulation had been mailed on Saturday, but about 80,000 copies of the Ledger for the present week, together with the paper for next week's issue, and the presses, were totally destroyed. The basement, second, third and fourth floors, were occupied by Messrs. WYNKOOP, HALLENBECK & THOMAS, steam job printers, and they estimate their loss at about $80,000; insured for $61,000 in various city insurance companies, in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $2,500. The New York Mercury was printed in the basement of this building. Besides the printing material destroyed, 216 reams of white paper were consumed. The proprietors of the Mercury think $5,500 will cover their loss, $1,000 of which is insured in the Park Insurance Company. That paper will be issued, as usual, at noon to-day, notwithstanding this disaster. The second form of the current number of the New York (old) Spirit of the Times was destroyed, but Col. THORPE, one of the proprietors, states that new type will be immediately procured, thus causing a delay of but a day or two in the issue of the paper. The other publications printed in the same building, were Bradstreet's Commercial Report, the proprietors of which lose $3,000, insured for $1,500; Merry's Museum and Children's Cabinet, published by J. N. STEARNS, whose loss is $200; uninsured; Coach Makers' Magazine, published by E. M. STRATTON, loss $200, uninsured. Mr. GEORGE BRUCE, the well-known type founder, owned the building, which was estimated to be worth $15,000. Insured for $10,000.

FIREMEN EXPELLED FOR INCENDIARISM.—Mendota Engine Company No. 1, of Madison, by a unanimous vote have expelled four of their members, R. E. DAVIS, ROBERT SMITH, THEODORE HOLT, and ALBERT H. WOOD, for setting fire to a barn, a few weeks since, with the laudable intent of breaking up the ball of Capital Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1, to which they had not been invited. "Served 'em right."

THE WEATHER in Marathon, during the past week, has been putting on some strange airs, for a Wisconsin winter. It seems as if in mid-winter it had suddenly taken a notion to be Spring, and has for the last five or six days favored (?) us with a March thaw, under which the sleighing is rapidly disappearing. Loggers are leaving the woods, and it is producing a bad effect generally on business in the woods.

THE NEW ALBANY LEDGER states that a revival has been in progress for some time past in the United Brethren Church at Georgetown, in Floyd county, Ind. Meetings are held every night, and the people gather in from a circuit of eight or ten miles. The church has been unable to hold the crowds in attendance, and the other churches in the vicinity have been thrown open for them. Upwards of one hundred have already joined the church.

FRAME HOUSE BURNED.—We learn by a gentleman from the country, that the frame house of Mr. FREDERICK CONVERSE, in the town of Randolph, Columbia Co., was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night last. Mr. CONVERSE was the Town Treasurer of Randolph, and lost, it is said, about $300 of the taxes collected.

A WRITER in the Chicago Journal shows that no President ever having had children has been re-elected to the Chief Magistracy of the Union, while with the exception of Mr. POLK, who declined a renomination, all those having no children have been elected. The thing stops with the present incumbent however.

THE MARSH one mile north of Fox Lake was recently set on fire, says the Gazette, and presented a most magnificent sight. We expect next to hear of the burning up of their lake. Extra people up there.

AN ENGINEER CUT IN TWO.—On Tuesday evening last, an engineer on the Grand Trunk Railway, named JAMES HEALY, was instantly killed a few miles from Detroit. He fell from the car and an entire train passed over his body, completely cutting it in two.

INDIAN GOOD TEMPLAR.—The Appleton Motor, says that Mr Jacobs, the Chief, of the Oneida Indians, was initiated into the lodge Good Templars in that place.

MR. GERRITY who was so severely frozen on the Taycheedah road some time since, died of his injuries on Friday night.

MRS. SWISSHELM, the strong minded editress of the St. Cloud (Minn.) Democrat, has been appointed surveyor of logs and lumber.

B. F. TAYLOR, of the Chicago Journal, lectured in Fond du Lac last evening.

The Chief Justiceship.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR—Sir:—I read with pleasure the communication of "O. G." in the Sentinel of the 31st ult. I am for having a Chief Justice elected who does not coincide with Judge DIXON, in his opinion of the supervisory power of the United States Courts over the State Courts—not because of the doctrine of State Rights, but because no State has ever practically regarded his construction of the Constitution of the United States, as the correct one; nor has the Supreme Court of the United States ever put such construction in practice. In fact, the doctrine of his opinion has very few adherents now, any where. In the case that the Judge quotes from Virginia, the State Courts never receded, and the United States Court, though affirming their own opinion, never put their "appellate power," as it is called, in execution. Virginia paid no attention to the brutum fulmen of the United States Courts. Then, wherefore, should Wisconsin, unless as a sort of a "sop to Cerberus?" The Supreme Court of Ohio have recently followed the lead of Wisconsin, and unanimously decided that the Supreme Court of the United States have no jurisdiction over our State Courts.

The people believe that our Court is in the right; that Judge DIXON is in the wrong. He, therefore, does not meet their views. Who does? There are many. "O. G." suggests Hon. A. D. SMITH. Let me suggest Judge SHAW or Judge TAYLOR. I concur in what your Fond du Lac correspondent has said of the latter. LAW.

February 1, 1860.

EXTRACTING SILVER FROM LEAD ORE.—The Dubuque Herald states that a Mr. WALTER had commenced smelting at the Eagle Foundry, in that city, with a view of extracting silver from the ore by a new and economical process. He has been at work for some time, and has forwarded specimens to the amount of some $25 to Philadelphia, and it was there pronounced to be of a superior quality. If Mr. WALTER has found a process by which sufficient silver can be extracted from the lead ore to make it pay, he has made a valuable discovery.

A PETITION is in circulation among the business men of Baltimore praying the legislature to declare the twenty-second day of February, the birth-day of WASHINGTON, a legal holiday. There are many who think the number of holidays which the American people permit themselves is entirely to small, and that a legal recognition of the birth-day of the Father of the Country would serve both a patriotic and desirable purpose. A similar application is now before the New York legislature.

IN ITS NOTES ON BUSINESS the Boston Commercial Bulletin states that the general aspect in every department is encouraging—even the shipping interest shows some signs of improvement. The wholesale grocers have been doing well, and place the business of last month fully up to that of last year.—The provision dealers give the same testimony with regard to their trade. The manufacturers throughout the State are pressed with work.

POSTMASTER UNDER ARREST.—Democratic Postmasters are always getting into trouble. OLIVER MUNGEN, at Findlay, Ohio, has just been arrested for embezzlement of public monies during his term of office.

BARNUM is making money with the DRAYTONS, and their parlor operas in New York. The parties have just divided $28,400 profits on the season.

THE BERLIN COURANT is out again. From it we learn that the total amount of property destroyed at that place in the recent fire will reach $25,000.

FIRE IN JOLIET, ILL.—A fire broke out in Joliet on Friday morning, consuming two buildings. Total loss $6,350.

QUITE a revival of religion is going on in the southern part of Indiana.

Slavery in Nebraska.

It turns out in regard to slavery in Nebraska as we had supposed. Gov. Black, Mr. Buchanan's appointee in that Territory, has coolly vetoed the bill passed by the Legislature to abolish slavery. In this veto we have fresh proof all the Republicans have alleged in regard to the determination of the Democratic party not to allow the formation of Free States where they can possibly prevent it, even though the settlers may ever so strongly desire to prohibit slavery. It was said by the Republicans repeatedly, in the last Presidential campaign, that if Mr. Buchanan was elected, Kansas would be made a Slave State, if the Administration could make it so. The assertion was always repelled as a slander on the fairness and impartiality of Mr. Buchanan, who, it was declared, could never be guilty of such an outrage. We all know how completely the Republican prediction was verified. Mr. Buchanan and the Administration sought by the most outrageous measures to establish slavery in Kansas in the face of a popular majority of 10,000 against it. He stood by the Lecompton Constitution to the last, and stands by it now. Meantime slavery exists in Kansas, and is only kept in order there by the determined hostility of the Free State men, and their unyielding purpose to grind its head wherever it may be reached.

In Nebraska, though so far North as to make Slavery utterly unprofitable, and thence to render the effort to exclude it comparatively easy, the determined purpose is manifested by the Administration and its friends. It even seems as if the Democratic party were animated by an undying spite against Freedom. Otherwise, why should they persist in trying to force Slavery upon communities situated in high latitudes like Nebraska, where they know the sentiment of the people is against it, and where they cannot hope to secure its permanent establishment? It is only on this hypothesis that we can account for this abortive veto of Governor Black and Mr. Buchanan. That veto cannot keep Slavery in Nebraska for any length of time, and it is merely to insult and incense the people of the Territory. Its only tendency is to aggravate and embitter the controversy on that phase of the Slavery question opened by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and further inflamed by the proceedings of the Administration on the Lecompton Constitution It is another evidence that the Democratic party does not seek peace, or harmony, but for some purpose is determined to aggravate our political disorders to the utmost. The Administration backs the Slave Power not only in those of its aggressions which promise favorable results, but yields to its malignant dictates where apparently it only seeks to humiliate those who oppose its universal sway.—N. Y. Tribune.

SNOW CAKES.—The use of snow as a substitute for yeast, or other leavening substances, is not new, though it is not known to all how to use it. The following recipe is vouched for by one who knows, as a good one: "Put corn meal into a good sized wood or other bowl, with sugar and salt to the taste; then add twice or three times its bulk of snow, and stir it together with a spoon.—When well mixed, it appears like so much dry meal or snow. Fry a little on a hot griddle; if it cooks too dry to turn well, add more snow; if too wet to be light, add more meal; when just right, fry on the griddle in convenient sized cakes, and they will be as light as can be desired."

WE LEARN that our enterprising neighbors at Hudson, six miles above Mound Prairie, and 12 miles above Hokah, are making the necessary arrangements for throwing a free bridge across Root river at that place. We like your enterprise gentlemen. Go ahead. We may at some future time chronicle such an event at Hokah.—Hokah Chief.

ROBBERY.—The store of Clements & Ames, of this village, was entered one night last week by some thief or thieves who finding no money, done the next best thing, as they supposed, took a quantity of sugar, coffee and butter.—Hokah Chief.

THE CITY.

CAUSES AND EFFECTS.—The Buffalo Advertiser gets off a soliloquy on the above subjects, in which there is a great deal of truth. Hear him:

"By effects and their causes the whole world is governed, and it is by studying the human mind, knowing well the thoughts of men, that these causes are produced from which proceed the effect.

"In church, for instance, we have often known the effect of one of the most solemn and impressive sermons ever preached lessened considerably by a piece of music wholly unadapted to it, thereby changing a solemn, serious impression into the half way feeling with which folks leave the church.

"In a theatre, the first thing that is seen is an elegant drop-curtain, with some splendid scenes painted thereon. Perhaps some Roman scene, with its old battlemented towers, raising their heads proudly above everything, while in the foreground gondolas spread their graceful length along the blue waves, which dash their waters against massive stone steps. The orchestra begins an inspiring strain, the figures on the curtain almost seem to move, and consequently when the curtain is raised, expectation, as a general thing, raises every thing above the general level. Perhaps it is some dark and rugged cave by the sea shore, as in Warlock of the Glen, where a distressed female is crying for some one to protect her child. We have seen persons in such cases as these almost start to the rescue, so strongly was it impressed on their minds."

Did our friend of the Advertiser ever sit in the parquette, listening to the ravishing strains of an orchestra, thinking of gauze and moonshine, and love in a cottage, and heaven and angelic accompaniments, and have the curtain commence slowly to rise, just as his thoughts had been mellowed by the sentimental altitude they had reached; and have the said curtain, after making an ascension of two feet four inches, positively refuse to go any further, despite the audible straining of ropes and pulleys, and the angry whispering of the prompter? Did our friend then notice the ankles in flesh tights, and the top-boots standing incomprehensibly in a line and feel the poetry drip out of his ears on his shirt collar?

Our friend has probably heard of the gentleman who "volunteered for that night only," to do the demon, and who was to have went through a trap, but after an "eloquent pantomimic" display of demoniacal powers, took his station on the wrong side of the stage, and tapped with his heel on the boards to be lowered to perdition; upon which the trap on the other side slowly opened; and played the deuce with an inoffensive sentinel. Or perhaps our friend may recollect some Sunday, when he has been listening to a deep and stirring appeal from the pulpit, the fervor and eloquence of which carried him quite above sublunary things, and just when he (the preacher) had closed, and our friend felt as though he wanted to hear something musically divine, that would not jar on his high strung nerves, the choir have stood up and after singing one line, have discovered that the tune wouldn't fit the words, and so there ensues a horrible silence, during which the minister wipes his mouth with his white handkerchief, and the audience hem and cough, and turn over the pages of their hymn books, and some audacious young rascal makes a noise with his mouth, something like an overcharged steam boiler will, whereupon there is so much nervousness visible, in everybody's face, that our friend has to put his own reverentially down on the back of the seat in front of him. Talk of cause and effect—there it is!

PRESIDING OFFICERS.—The several Lodges of Good Templars have elected their officers for the next quarter, and the following are the names of the several presiding officers elect:

W. K. WILSON, W. C. T. of Queen City Lodge.

ELLIS WORTHINGTON, W. C. T. of Milwaukee Lodge.

L. H. KELLOGG, W. C. T. of Dashaway Lodge.

P. W. PETERSON, W. C. T. of Badger State Lodge.

ELISHA BOARDMAN, A. MURISON and JOHN HART, were elected Trustees of Queen City Lodge, Tuesday evening, for the ensuing year.

GENESEE FARMER.—The February number of this favorite agricultural paper is received. It contains a number of Prize Essays on various agricultural and horticultural subjects, with much other interesting and instructive matter. It is not necessary to commend the Farmer. It has a deservedly wide circulaton, and if there are any of our rural readers who do not take it, they would do well to send for it at once. Only fifty cents a year. Address JOSEPH HARRIS, Rochester, N. Y.

"TIMOTHY TITCOMB" ON "WORK AND PLAY."—The Lecture Committee of the Y. M. A., announce the above attractive title as theme of Dr. HOLLAND's lecture this (Friday) evening, in accordance, with a Telegram received from him at Chicago. No one will question the lecturer's ability to do justice to the subject, especially those who are familiar with his works. We consequently look for a continuance of the large attendance which characterized the previous lectures.

ONE OF THE SPICIEST, raciest, merriest, sprightliest, as well as wholesome, sound and attractive little hebdobodalities published in this State is launched by T. W. BROWN. It has temperance without nauseating violence, it contains thoughts newly turned and neat articles on literary and home affairs, which are always readable, and often worth cutting out.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.—DR. HOLLAND, better known as "Timothy Titcomb," will lecture this evening at Albany Hall; subject; "Work and Play." The Doctor is a very popular man and all who have read his productions in the Springfield Republican, or as published in book form, will need no persuasion to go and hear him this evening.

WE HAVE RECEIVED a copy of the Mineral Point City Directory, from which we learn that that city has a population of 5,800 and has 637 buildings; of which more than one half are substantial structures of stone or brick. The work speaks well for the enterprise and spirit of the citizens of Mineral Point.

TREES-ON.—The Eighth Ward is peculiarly blessed; their "lots have fallen to them in pleasant places." The Comptroller has indicated a determination to plant their park with locust, elm and silver poplars, so that next season they may be able to keep shady, on all warm questions.

BOARD OF SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.—A special meeting of the Board of School Commissioners will be held at their room this (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock. The Executive Committee are requested to meet at the Secretary's office, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

THERE WAS A MASQUERADE last evening. Not being provided with any tickets, we are unable to say whether it was a success or not.

Free Church of the Atonement.

The undersigned would call the attention of the churchmen of Milwaukee to a few facts connected with this Mission. It was started, as most are aware, under the supervision and support of the Board of City Missions, early in March, 1857; said Board consisting of the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Diocese as President, together with the Rectors and Wardens of each parish within the city. By them the Rev. HENRY MARTIN THOMPSON was called to take charge of the Mission, who labored faithfully and successfully in it, gathering in the poor into the house of the God—visiting from door to door, looking up children for the Sunday School, which rapidly increased in numbers, and baptizing many, both adults and children. It was considered that the Third Ward Mission was a success. But the second year the Board declared themselves unable to sustain the Mission; and in order to hold the ground already gained, the little flock were obliged to organize themselves into a Mission Parish, which they did April 5th, 1858, electing the Rev. Mr. THOMPSON their Rector. And he was sustained by the contributions of a few noble-hearted individuals. May God reward them.

At the close of the year he was obliged, for the health of his family, to go South, and his devoted parishioners and flourishing Sunday School were without a Pastor. The undersigned, then teaching in the city, rather than see so much labor lost, and such devoted churchmen as the Sunday School teachers and parishioners of the Mission without a Pastor, offered to supply them with Sunday services and such other services as the proper discharge of his duties would permit, which he has done for nine months, during which time arrangements have been made and steps taken towards building a church. The Sunday School is in an exceedingly flourishing condition, the Superintendent and teachers uncommonly faithful and interested in the spread of the church and the welfare of those under their charge, and a good congregation in regular attendance.

But the undersigned is obliged to leave, and again the little flock is without a head. But Providence once more comes to their aid and a faithful and talented Minister of the Gospel steps forward, rather than see the good work stop, and will undertake to conduct it at a very small salary until a church building is erected. The question now is, can we have assistance; will churchmen, if necessary, deny themselves to respond to our prayers, or will they look coldly on while God's own work among the poor shall fail in their midst? I trust not. The Wardens of the Church will be round asking the aid and sympathy of their christian brethren. Give them something, as God has blessed you.—Remember christianity does not consist in holding a pew in Church, having it well cushioned and carpeted, and having a Rector of your own; but it consists in offices and works of love, as well as in enlarging the borders of Zion and opening through the desert places a highway for the Lord God of Hosts. And the existence of the spirit of true christianity among Milwaukee churchmen will be demonstrated by the way they sustain their Missions and make glad the hearts of the poor. H. W. SPALDING.

Milwaukee, Jan., 1850.

16TH JANUARY, 1860.

REV. H. W. SPALDING:—I cordially commend the effort you intend to make for the benefit of the promising congregation of the Church of the Atonement, in Milwaukee. I believe that a clergyman, devoting his whole time to that parish, would collect a large body of English, who were brought up in the Mother Church, and are now deprived, or who are depriving themselves, of all the blessings of the Sanctuary of Almighty God. Wishing you every success, I am most truly your friend and Bishop,

JACKSON KEMPER

Rev. H. W. SPALDING, Milwaukee.

ST. PAUL'S PARISH.—We are happy to learn that the Rev. Mr. ASHLEY, of Buffalo, has accepted the call sent to him by St. Paul's (Episcopal) Parish in this city. Mr. ASHLEY is a clergyman of much ability and will be a decided accession to our city.

LIGHT THE GAS.—There is one phenomenon in connection with City Governments, which has never been fully explained; and that is, why the street lamps are invariably left unlit on the darkest nights, and especially in the darkest streets.

THE MADISON PATRIOT says the correspondent of the Sentinel, "Invariable," is an "old granny." We sincerely hope that our friends will not suppose "Invariable" is buying up the good opinions of the Patriot for the sake of notoriety.

KELLOGG has reduced the prices at his pistol gallery on Spring; eight shots for fifteen cents, four shots for ten cents. Could anything be more reasonable. KELLOGG should be patronized through evil as well as good reports.

GEORGE SUMNER.—We are glad to learn that there is a prospect of Mr. SUMNER's lecturing before our Young Men's Association next week. He is one of the most entertaining lecturers in the country.

RECEIVED.—The Wisconsin Journal of Education, for February; Dwight's Journal of Music; the Genesee Farmer, and the Scalpel.

ARRIVED.—Five emigrants, direct from the city of St. Petersburg, Russia, arrived in this city yesterday, over the Mil. & Chi. Railroad.

THE GREATEST ARGUMENT in favor of water works, is represented by the inside of a tea-kettle, where the lime is over a quarter of an inch thick.

GENESEE, Wauk. Co., Jan. 30, 1860.

DEAR SIR:—Permit me, through the medium of your good and widely circulated paper, to call the attention of the public to the prompt and cheerful payment of losses by the "Ætna Insurance Company" of Hartford, Conn.

On the 1st day of the present month, my store and contents were destroyed by fire, and, it being very cold, very few of my goods were saved. I had an insurance on my building and goods in the "Ætna Insurance Co.," of $2,400. The notice of loss was promptly answered by the presence of W. H. WYMAN, Esq., of Madison, State Agent, who adjusted the claim to my entire satisfaction, and I have this morning received from W. HENRY HOLLAND, Esq., Agent at Milwaukee, the payment of full amount of my claim against said Company. Respectfully, feb3d5t CHARLES M. PATEK.

LOST.—Left on the seat in one of the cars of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad at Madison, on Monday forenoon, Jan. 30th, a Printed Blank Receipt Book, wrapped in an old newspaper, with my printed card on the outside. It is of no value to any one but the owner. Any person returning the same to GEO. CHURCH, Esq., Conductor on the Road, or the undersigned, will be suitably rewarded. W. HENRY HOLLAND, Cor. ## TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS, FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Trial of Stephens.

CHARLESTOWN, Feb. 2—3 P. M.

The town is thronged to-day to witness the proceedings of the trial of Stephens, one of the Harper's Ferry conspirators. At 11 o'clock the Court opened, Judge J. Kenny, of Rockingham presiding, Judge Parker being engaged in holding the regular town court in Hampshire Co. The Grand Jury were sworn. The Judge delivered his charge and in referring to the Harper's Ferry invasion said:

It is known to you, and is now a part of the history of the country, that on the night of the 15th of Oct. last, a band of traitors, murderers and incendiaries stealthily made a descent on the soil of Virginia, in the county of Jefferson, and wantonly murdured several of our citizens and people with a design to incite our slaves to revolt and to subvert our Government.

Some of these desperadoes and others, the dupes of designing cowards, were captured and punished according to their deserts; but there are some engaged in this foray, who not as yet been apprehended; and others who are believed to have been actively engaged in this tragedy, but who are not yet known to the public. It will be your duty, and I believe your pleasure also, to enquire who was guilty of polluting our soil and attempting to dishonour the sovereignty of Virginia.

I deem it necessary for me to recommend you to conduct your inquiries with that coolness, justice, and good sense, which has distinguished your predecessors in their inquisition, and which has met the approbation of the good and patriotic citizens of our common country. So conduct your inquiries that the bright escutcheon of your beloved State shall not be dimmed by passion or groundless suspicion, and also let them be conducted without fear, favor or affection; as you may elicit the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

The jury then retired to their room, and a list of the witnesses in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Aaron D. Stephens was sent up.

Before the jury retired, Mr. Harding, District Attorney, made an address to them.

After an absence of an hour they returned with a bill against Stevens, charging him with murder and treason, and conspiring with slaves to create a rebellion. The witnesses in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Hazlett, were then sent up and an indictment of the same character was shortly afterwards returned against him. The work of empanelling a jury in the case of Stevens was postponed until to-morrow, in order to allow his counsel time to examine the indictments against him.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1—3 P. M.

The Tribune correspondence says: The committees will be announced next week.—Mr. Sherman will be Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and leader of the House. Mr. Grow will be at the head of the Committee on Territories, and others who were members of the 34th Congress, will probably be restored to the positions they then occupied. Nothing is yet determined, however.

Mr. Realf has been discharged by the Harper's Ferry Committee.

Mr. Hyatt will appear to-morrow.

Mr. Wendell has refused to answer certain interrogations proposed by the printing investigating committee, and is allowed time to decide whether he will adhere to that purpose. If he persists, imprisonment may be the consequence.

The Herald's correspondent says the city has been wild with rejoicing during the night, over the election of a Speaker. It is participated in by all parties, who have suffered more or less financially in the delay of organization.

Speaker Pennington and Messrs. Sherman and Hickman were serenaded at Willard's by Writher's Band, accompanied by a large company of citizens and residents of the District.

Willard's Hotel was thronged with people, and the sentiments uttered by the Speaker and Sherman and Hickman, were bold and decided against the extension of slavery.—The serenaders proceeded to the house of H. Winter Davis, but did not find him at home. They then proceeded about 10 o'clock to the residence of Mr. Grow, and called him out of his bed, who responded in a short speech.

Rejoicings in Newark, N. J.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 1.

The election of Mr. Pennington was received here to-day with general satisfaction. This evening the Mercury office was illuminated, bonfires are blazing in the streets, and 118 guns are being fired in honor of the event and the Governor's political friends are passing compliments freely. Mr. Pennington is a popular man at home.

No Signs of the North America.

PORTLAND, ME., Feb. 2—3 P. M.

The wires are down east of St. Johns, N. B., and we have heard nothing from Halifax since last evening. There are no signs of the steamer North America now about due here, with Liverpool dates of the 18th ult.

Capture of a Slaver.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 2—3 P. M.

Arrived at quarantine brig Delioia, Lieut. McAran, from the coast of Africa—a prize to the frigate Constellation. No negroes are on board of her.

Horse Race at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 1.

Planet won the four mile race here to-day. Time 7:54. Arthur Macon was distanced. Congaree won the mile race. Time 1:50 1-2 and 1:49 1-4.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Arrival of the Steamer America.

HALIFAX, Feb. 2—9 P. M.

The steamer America, from Liverpool the 14th, and from Queenstown the following day, arrived here at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The object of Lord Cowley's mission to London was to resume the negotiations between England and France, which were instituted by the former and interrupted by Count Walewski. The principle of those negotiations was the non-intervention in the affairs of Central Italy, France adopting some basis desirous that the whole of Europe should give its formal assent to the principle. With this view, Lord Cowley was solicited to sound the feelings of the British Cabinet, as to the advisability of addressing a collective note to the European cabinets. In this note an infraction of the principle of non-intervention was to be treated a casus belli.

The British Cabinet, while expressing its readiness to support the principle of non-intervention, either at the Congress or in its communications with the Foreign Powers, pointed out the impossibility of pledging itself without the consent of Parliament to a course of policy which might possibly involve hostilities. The feeling of the Northern Courts gave rise to some fear that Europe would not passively submit to so threatening an intimation, and which also implied the adoption of principles opposed to the independence of every State which possesses the right of forming alliances as it may think proper, at its own risk and peril. The British Cabinet having declined the propositions to enter into engagements having such an important bearing, an early meeting of the Congress was again advised.

There was a doubtful rumor that the Emperor of Austria had invited Russia and Prussia to defend the legitimate rights of monarchs

At the latest accounts the Spanish army was near Tetuan; the position of the army being unchanged.

Reports are current and believed in Paris that an agreement was made beween France and England for the reciprocal import of English iron and coal and French wares.

The Paris correspondent of the Post reports that the Papal Nuncio has said the Pope will give up the Romagna, provided the rest of his dominions be secured to him.

Cardinal Antonelli's resignation was not confirmed.

It was rumored that Garribaldi had gone to Sicily.

Gen. Monahan, Commander-in-Chief of the French expedition to China, had embarked with his staff at Marseilles, via the overland route.

The monthly receipts of the Bank of France shows a decrease in cash of forty-five millions of francs, and an increase in discounts of nearly forty-six millions.

A submarine cable had been successfully laid between the Channel Islands and France.

A stormy meeting of the Great Eastern Steamship Company had been held in London. A report was presented, showing the position of the company, and announcing the resignation of the Board. A resolution to receive the report was followed by an amendment, that before doing so a committee of investigation be appointed. After a warm discussion it was resolved to decide the question by ballot. The result was expected to be made known on the day the America sailed. The meeting stood adjourned till the 17th.

A Captain Walker, thought to be the Captain of the slaver Wanderer, and who recently arrived in Liverpool under extraordinary circumstances, was under arrest in that place, charged with having conspired with others to obtain money by false pretences. The evidence before the magistrate showed that Walker was treating for the purchase of a ship for a slave expedition.

Edmund Love and Geo. Hinds, first and second mates of the ship Ann, of New York, were under arrest in London, charged with having murdered several colored seamen during the voyage from Ligons to England.

A cotton mill at Blackburn, called the Swallow Street Mill, containing 20,000 spindles, has been burnt; loss £30,000.

INDIA AND CHINA.—The Calcutta mail of Dec. 10th, and Hong Kong mail of Nov. 7th, had reached England.

The Government despatches from Oude confirm the complete overthrow and dispersion of the remainder of the rebel army. All the leading rebels had been taken except the Begum and he could not hold long.

The salt tax was to be increased one shilling on the 80 pounds, adding nearly a million sterling to the revenue.

Calcutta imports were quiet.

Cotton goods and yarns were declining; freights were active.

The Chinese were reported to be making great warlike preparations.

Imports at Hong Kong and Canton were dull, but prices were generally sustained owing to light stocks. Teas were quiet but holders refused to reduce prices.

Imports at Shanghai were quiet. The tea business was almost stopped, owing to the exorbitant rates demanded.

Silks was lower, and a good business in tea was doing at Foo-Choo-Foo at firm rates.

At Japan trade progressed favorably.

The Bombay Telegraph of Dec. 27, via Aden reports the campaign against the rebels in Neupal progressing favorably. Rebels all surrendered except the Begum. It was said the Chinese had addressed a demand to Russia that she evacuate all the country of Amoor.

The weekly meeting of the Bank of England directors passed off without any advance in the rate of discount. The demand for money continued active.

Wheeler & Co., of London, ship owners, have suspended for about £40,000.

Church & Son, of London, have also suspended.

THE VERY LATEST BY TELEGRAPH from Liverpool to Queenstown, 14th.—Mr. Villemarne is publishing a pamphlet, in which he advocates the territorial rights of the Pope. It is rumored that a majority of French Bishops have expressed themselves ready to launch into public notice, but Rome hesitates to give the signal.

At Vienna it is fully believed that the government intends openly and actively to interfere in Central Italy in favor of the exiled Dukes and the Papal Government. The pastoral of the Arch-Bishop, published in the Weiner Zeitung of the 11th, confirms the fear.

The Universe announces that the Bishop of Perugia is about to publish a pamphlet in answer to the "Pope and the Congress."

The Militia United Gazette says a rumor gains credit in military circles, that it is the intention of the Government to disband the militia embodied very early in the spring.

The Paris Pay says: Should our information be correct, the state of affairs are daily improving, not only as regards the relations of the French Government with the Holy See, but also in reference to those of England, which are continually becoming more intimate.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2—9 P. M.

SENATE.—Sundry communications were received from the Executive Department.

On motion of Mr. Gwin it was resolved that on and after Monday next the Senate meet at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Gwin gave notice that on Monday he would move to go on with the calendar. The first bill upon the calendar was for the construction of a Railroad to the Pacific, and he desired to take that up.

Mr. Sumner introduced a resolution requesting the Committee on Commerce to enquire into the expediency of repealing the Hospital tax on seamen, and abolishing the present system of marine hospitals.

Adopted.

Mr. Wigfall gave notice of a bill for a Railroad and Telegraph between the Atlantic States and California.

Mr. Lane offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Naval Affairs to enquire into the expediency of establishing a naval station on Puget's Sound. Adopted.

Mr. Davis introduced a series of resolutions relating to obligations imposed on States by the Constitution to protect the rights of the people in the Territories, &c.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill appropriating a million of acres of the public land for the benefit of the free schools of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Foster introduced a resolution of inquiry whether the appropriation for the post-office in New York is now in force, and whether further legislation is necessary.—Adopted.

Mr. Brown's resolutions were taken up.

Mr. Fitch discussed the Territorial question.

After an exciting executive session, the Senate adjourned.

Wisconsin Legislature.

MADISON, Feb. 2—9 P. M.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on Wednesday, the 29th day of February, 1860, at 12 o'clock M., to choose four delegates from the State at large, and two from each Congressional District, to represent the State of Wisconsin in the Republican National Convention to be held at Chicago on the 13th of next June, to nominate two candidates for presidential electors for the State at large; to adopt such action as may be deemed advisable in view of the approaching election of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State; and for the transaction of such other business as may be thought calculated to advance the interests of the party and promote the success of its principles.

Each Assembly District of the State will be entitled to two delegates in such Convention, except where a district includes more than one County, when each county will be entitled to two delegates.

The committee would respectfully suggest that Assembly District Conventions to elect delegates to the State Convention be held as early as Saturday, the 18th day of February.

Republican Mass Convention.

A Mass Convention of the Republicans of Rock Co., will be held at the Court Room in the City of Janesville, Saturday, Feb. 4th, at 11 o'clock A. M., to organize a Republican County Club, with a design to a thorough organization of the county at the coming Presidential election.

It is earnestly desired that the Republicans of Rock County will enter upon this work with zeal and determination to make it effective. It is an indispensable work, and cannot be too soon or too well done. Other counties are adopting this plan, and preparing in the most efficient manner for the contest before them. Let "Old Rock" be a laggard in the work.

Invitations to several well known speakers will be sent out, and it is expected that some of them will be present. B. F. HALE, Ch'n County Com.

CHAS. HOLT, Secretary.
Janesville, January 27, 1860.

The Republicans of the "Banner County," in the above call, have set an example which should be promptly followed, all over the State. We cannot commence too soon the work of ORGANIZATION for the all-important Presidential contest for 1860. Our State Convention assembles at Madison on the 29th of the present month. As we have heretofore suggested, the meetings held to choose delegates to that Convention should take the necessary steps toward a thorough organization of the Republican party in every County, Town and School District of this State. An undoubted majority of the electors of Wisconsin believe in and will sustain the Republican cause and candidates in November next.

But it must be our aim and effort, on the eventful day that is to decide the contest between FREE and Slave Labor, to bring to the polls every man who holds, with the Republican party, that the Constitution was framed and the Union formed to perpetuate the blessings of FREE and not Slave Institutions.

We trust that the Republicans of Milwaukee, following in the footsteps of their brethren in glorious Old Rock, will meet in Mass Convention during the present month, and commence in earnest the work of preparation for the Presidential election in November.—Let our Republican City Committee, or the officers of the Young Men's Republican Club, issue a call for such a gathering without delay.

Who Has Surrendered?

Some of the most unscrupulous Republican organs—such as the Sentinel and Free Democrat—insist that in voting for Mr. Smith, of North Carolina—who never belonged to the American or Know-Nothing party—the Democrats in Congress abandoned some of their principles. We think not. If Mr. Smith had been, as they falsely and maliciously charge, an American, they might have voted for him in order to effect an organization of the House, without committing themselves in the slightest degree to his doctrine on that question. But we have his own open and explicit denial of the charge, so that in voting for him they no more endorsed Know-Nothingism than they did Abolitionism.—News of yesterday.

Where does the News find this "open and explicit denial," by Mr. SMITH, of being a Know-Nothing? Mr. SMITH, though appealed to during the voting to define his position, maintained a prudent silence. The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says:

It was stated in a despatch to the Associated Press, yesterday, that Mr. Smith utterly disavowed any connection with the Know-Nothing order or its principles. Mr. Smith made no avowals of any kind, but refused, under advice of friends, to answer any questions. He was elected as a South American, in opposition to a Democrat, and was presented by Mr. Mallory, a South American, as the candidate of the Southern American caucus.

The Democrats voted in a solid body for this Know-Nothing nominee. The thirty Know-Nothings in the House surrounded and captured eighty-five Democrats. The Democrats, in supporting Mr. SMITH, virtually endorsed the Know-Nothing principles that he represented, and plainly expressed the hypocrisy and hollowness of their pretended opposition to the Dark Lantern party.

The Contest for the Speakership.

The N. Y. Tribune, reviewing the exciting contest of Monday last, comes to the following conclusion:

1. All the Southern Democrats have voted for a Southern Know-Nothing, when they would never all vote for a Northern Democrat.
2. To prove that they are not "sectional" the entire South has voted in a body for one of their own men, while the "sectional" North has been divided.
3. A portion of our friends have, by a hazardous "experiment," which came near engulfing themselves, submerged the Northern Democracy, where they now flounder in disgrace.

The Democrats, especially those from the Northwest, are very wroth with the four, or five Opposition Members from Pennsylvania, who tempted them to try the dangerous "experiment" of voting for a Know-Nothing.—They discovered that they sold themselves cheap and failed, after all to obtain the consideration.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.—It is reported that Mr. SEWARD is preparing himself for a speech fully defining his own position and defending the Republican faith. The Chicago Democrat predicts that it will be the great speech of the age, and says:—"For his opposition to Know-Nothingism when it was riding rough-shod over the country, and also for his manly and independent defence of the principles of human liberty, Gov. SEWARD has always commanded our warmest admiration and respect, and we have been hoping that it would be in our power to aid him to the Presidency. It continues that SEWARD and LINCOLN would be be the first choice of an immense majority of the Republicans of Northern Illinois, and that the treatment of SHERMAN in Congress has tended to make SEWARD votes. "Besides," it adds, "the South threatens to dissolve the Union if Governor SEWARD is elected. Now, we are free to say, that our first choice for President would be the man who would put the courage of these fire-eaters to the test."

AMONG THE ARTICLES of recent importation into San Francisco from Japan are tea trays, desks, card-tables, and an infinity of such wares. These are either beautifully enameled, lacquered or varnished; but their principal value consists of their superb finish, which shows them to be the most costly goods of that kind manufactured in Japan. Some of them have the tops composed entirely of mosaic work, all kinds of fanciful figures, birds, flowers, &c., let into the solid wood with the most delicate art, and with accuracy as to defy the closes scrutiny to detect the joints. Another class of goods is the work-boxes and baskets, cigar-cases, glove and toilet boxes, embossed card perfume dressing boxes of various patterns—all of fanciful workmanship. Then, there is a variety of the most beautiful porcelain ware, some of which is of peculiar delicacy, and such as has never before been permitted to go out into the "barbarian" world.

NEW AND QUICK OVERLAND ROUTE.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune furnishes the following item of news:

Messrs. Russell & Majors, government contractors, intend starting an express between St. Joseph and Carson City, the western terminus of the California telegraph, by the 3d of April. The distance is 1600 miles, which it is proposed to travel in eight days, by horse relays every 25 miles, thus reducing communication between New York and San Francisco within ten days. The cost of dispatches to Carson City will be $5 apiece. It is estimated that the courier can carry 30 pounds of matter. They are to start from each terminus at the same time.

The Printing Question.

Mr. KEOGH, Member of Assembly from the Third Ward, spoke in the following manner in favor of the adoption of the Report of the Printing Committee, against the reduction of printers' fees for legal advertising. The debate on this subject was animated, occupying the time of the Assembly on Tuesday, and resulted in the re-committing of the Report to the Printing Committee:

Mr. Keogh, in reply to Mr. Elmore, said that if the only argument in favor of the reduction of printers' fees, was the relief of widows and orphans, the repeal of Sec. 110, of Chap. 18, Revised Statutes, which requires 12 per cent. of interest from the day of the returns to the day of sale, would obviate the difficulty complained of by the gentleman from Waukesha. He would at some future time introduce a bill for its repeal, and hoped the gentlemen who were in favor of reducing the penalty imposed for the non-payment of taxes, would vote for it. He said its repeal would relieve tax payers more than a reduction of the fees paid to printers.

He further said: I am slow to believe that we were sent here for the purpose of repealing laws which were but yesterday adopted. In my opinion, the duty of the Legislator is, before voting for the repeal of a law, to first ask himself the question, has this law been in force a sufficient period of time to test its expediency? This law, the repeal of which is spoken of here, was passed at the last session of our Legislature—passed by an assemblage of men as wise and discreet and, I dare say, as economical as is the present, and its repeal in so short a space of time, is as uncomplimentary to them as it is unjust to the publishers of newspapers in this State. How much, then, are the "dear people" to be benefitted by this reform?

Why, the enormous sum of ten cents on every piece of land advertised, and sold for the non-payment of taxes. To those outside the "craft" it may appear exorbitant, but to those inside, who are acquainted with the inconveniences experienced in the publication of such advertisements, it is considered but a fair compensation for labor performed, and why? Because it requires extra sorts—sorts which are not necessary in ordinary reading matter, and must be purchased expressly for that kind of work by the publisher, and, if perchance, he should fail to receive its subsequent publication, those sorts are useless for any other purpose. The Printer—he who "sets up" the advertisement, receives for his services, treble the amount received for ordinary reading matter. Hence the necessity, and the justice of paying publishers the present rate. I want to see recorded an unanimous vote in favor of the report, as I consider it due to the publishers of newspapers in this State, who, in my judgment, have done more than any one class of men to make Wisconsin what she is to-day—second to no State in the Union. I do not ask its adoption for the especial benefit of newspapers published at Milwaukee. I ask it for the benefit of newspapers published throughout the State—the existence of which, depend, in a great degree, upon the proceeds arising from such work. Reduce the fees now established for legal advertising and many of the noble little sheets now emanating from the interior, and hailed by the inhabitants as the harbingers of truth and usefulness, will cease to make their weekly visits.

When we seek to impair the usefulness of the press by curtailing its means of subsistence, we indirectly strike a blow at our own interests and the interests of the State. The true evidence of the thrift and prosperity of a people is in the number of newspapers they support. The publishers in this State have labored for years, under disadvantages, in the hope of an abundant future, and are now only realizing a scanty and meagre living; they have been foremost in holding out inducements to non-residents to come and settle in our midst, and it is unfair, nay, ungenerous, for any law-making power to thus seek to paralyze their energies and blast their hopes. When we wish to give publicity to our views on any subject, it is invariably through the columns of a newspaper, and seldom, if ever, do we think of paying for it. When we wish to give publicity to marriages or demises, seldom, if ever, do we pay for it. In short, the press has been used by the People of the State as a receptacle for gratuities, at an enormous expense to the publishers, and instead of a decrease in their rates, they are entitled to, and should receive an increase. Other gentlemen may vote as they please, I shall vote in favor of the report.

A Common Sense Southern View.

From the Louisville Democrat, 11th ult.

It is fashionable now to declaim about the aggressions of the North and the wrongs of the South. We are told that the South has compromised and yielded, and yielded and compromised, until she has nothing left, and that she must now stand upon her constitutional rights. This is all very vague and inflammatory; but it is, perhaps, not popular to suggest that there is more gas than reality in all these tirades. The South has had the President of the United States forty-eight years, whilst the North has had it but twenty-four; whilst the South has given a majority of her vote for each one of the Northern men who have been elected, with two or three exceptions, the South has in the meantime, had a controling influence in Congress almost always. There is no policy of the Government that now exists for which the South is not herself responsible. We ask these disclaimers to name one measure of aggression, which they talk so much about, on the Federal statute book, for which the South is not as much responsible as the North? What particular act of aggression is complained of? Let it be specified and rectified? Is the South now dissatisfied with herself? She has had the power of the Federal Government, and if she is ill-used, she has herself to blame for it. It is to be regretted that she can't be satisfied with her own acts.

It is true we have had a party North opposed to any more Slave States, but we have acquired Slave territory and admitted Slave States in spite of this opposition. The particular point of grievance now is not that the Congress of the United States has done anything against the South, but that the people of a Territory may exclude Slaves before it becomes a State. This will be an insufferable violation of a great constitutional right, which it will be disgraceful to compromise! It is the last of insufferable wrongs not to be endured. The Territories were acquired by the common blood and treasure, and Congress has the power coupled with the duty to guarantee this constitutional right. The North has grown in insolence from our forbearance, until this last aggression is to be attempted.

It is strange that reasonable men should become so excited over such a point, when they recollect the history of the country.—Slavery was prohibited by the ordinance of 1787 in the whole North-West. This was done by Virginia, it will be said, in the deed of cession. All the worse, that a slave State should exclude slave holders from taking their property to a territory by the common blood and treasure. Yet our fathers lived under this great iniquity; under this deprivation of right and justice, and didn't know they were an ill-used people. Nearly forty years ago, Congress, worse then than that body has ever been since, refused to admit a slave State into the Union, from the vast region of Louisiana, north of 36° and 30 min. The South agreed to it; agreed to give up their right, acquired by the common blood and treasure, and a generation passed away unconscious of this great wrong that we are suffering. It was a wrong and it was unconstitutional, but our fathers let it pass unchallenged for thirty years. Where was the "common blood and treasure" argument all that time? And how happens it that now, after Congress has repealed the restriction which we submitted to for thirty years, it suddenly becomes an aggression if the people of a territory shall exclude Slavery, which they will not do of course if it suits their interests, and which they will have the acknowledged right to do in a few years?

The present excitement must appear to every cool observer very unnatural and absurd. It is a new agony magnified into an importance that doesn't belong to the subject. When the South was excluded from the Northwest, and from the northern part of the Territory of Louisiana, by Congress, our fathers didn't even raise an issue about it; now, when we have no exclusion, except what is the effect of manifest destiny, and which no government can control, we have suddenly discovered that we are suffering an intolerable wrong.

We pass over the wrongs done by States in nullifying the fugitive slave law, and the conduct of lawless men who run off slaves upon the underground railroad. We have always had more or less of these evils to encounter, and time will mitigate them, no doubt; and the Federal Government is not responsible for them. Over these real evils, be it observed, nothing is said. They are forgotten for one almost purely imaginary and abstract. Let us have a little more calmness and reason on this matter, and not empty declamation and wild exaggeration. We shall not avoid aggression by charges that are utterly futile; the extravagance of which is seen by all mankind. So far from the South losing by compromises on this slavery question, as they are called, she has been more and more released from restrictions, we once suffered without complaining, at each succeeding compromise, and never had less to complain of in the Federal Government than now.

YESTERDAY we heard an old fisherman upon the bank of the river complain that the boys had stolen his minnows. We suppose the little rascals hooked the bait to bait their hooks.

Funeral of Lord Macaulay.

[From the London Times of Jan. 10th.]

The last earthly honors were yesterday paid to the remains of the great man who has just gone from among us. Escorted by the noblest and highest in the land, the body of Macaulay was left to mingle its dust with those of the great of past days who slumber in peace beneath Westminster Abbey. To the long roll of poets, statesmen and historians there interred another lofty name is added, and that most sacred portion of our great cemetery derives another claim upon the veneration of posterity as now containing also the remains of the first and last Lord Macaulay, the essayist, poet, historian and statesman.

The funeral cortege started in the morning from the late residence of the deceased, at Holly-lodge, Campden hill, Kensington. This beautiful little villa adjoins the house occupied by the Duke of Argyll, between whom and the late peer there was a most close and intimate friendship. In the retirement of this half-country residence, Lord Macaulay had lived for some time, passing the greater part of his day in the library of the British Museum, and the greater part of each evening and night in arranging the immense mass of materials which, from all sources, he had gathered for his history. The procession was fixed to leave Holly-lodge at 11 o'clock, but before that hour the route along which it was to pass was marked by a dense line of spectators. All the houses of the nobility and gentry in the neighborhood of Holly-lodge were of course closed, while nearly all the houses along the route from Kensington, Knightsbridge, and through Grosvenor-place towards the Abbey, were either half or entirely shut up.

A few minutes before 11, the coffin was placed in the hearse, which was drawn by six horses, and preceded by the usual pile of funeral plumes. It is customary in these state funerals to bear before the hearse, on a velvet cushion, an imitation, more or less exact, of the coronet to which the rank of the deceased entitled him. This unmeaning peace of pageantry, however, which, in spite of its having been the butt of satirists almost for centuries, still holds its ground, was not attempted in the funeral of yesterday. Following the hearse was three mourning coaches and four, the first carriage containing the chief mourners—the Rev. John Macaulay, Mr. Charles Macaulay, Mr. Henry Macaulay and Mr. George Otto Trevelyan. The second carriage contained Mr. Edward Cropper, Mr. Kenneth Macaulay, Q. C.; Mr. Thomas Flower Ellis and Mr. Henry Thurston Holland. The third carriage was occupied by his Lordship's private domestics, who had all been with him for years.

At Hyde Park corner a considerable number of the nobility, &c., were stationed. As the funeral cortege turned down Grosvenor place, these joined the procession, and followed in its wake in a line of immense length.

The funeral was expected to arrive at the Abbey at 1 o'clock, the public being admitted by ticket an hour previous.

A small though distinguished attendance of literary men were among those who claimed admittance to the Abbey. Beyond these the majority of the congregation was composed of clergymen, ladies, and even children. We need scarcely say that neither the ladies nor the children were in mourning, so that handsome bonnets and bright ribbands rather marred the effect of an otherwise solemn and impressive ceremony. Before half past 12 all those to whom tickets had been granted were in their places, leaving ample room in that part of the old cathedral for more than double the number who were admitted.

Among others present were:—Lord Cranworth, Lord Stanley of Alderley, Lord Belper, Lord Montagu, Earl Granville, the Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Lord Broughton of Broughton Giffard, Lord Monteagle, the Rt. Hon. C. Villiers, Sir J. Shaw Lefevre, His Excellency the Belgian Minister, Mr. Alderman Solomons, Mr. Durham, Mr. Bohn, Mr. Wyld, M. P.; Mr. Grote, Mr. Looke, M. P.; the Hon. Arthur Kinnaird, Mr. Thackeray, Mr. Shirley Brooks, Lord Stanley, Mr. Alexander, Q. C.; Mr. Serjeant Shee, Dr. Hawtrey, Provost of Eaton; Mr. Tom Taylor, Rev. J. Scott, Mr. J. Mills, M. P.; Mr. Rich, M. P., Mr. E. Buxton, Mr. S. Lever, Mr. John Foster, Mr. J. C. Hall, the Very Rev. the Dean of Canterbury, Mr. Charles Knight, Sir D. M'Dougall, &c. It may have been merely a singular coincidence, but it was a subject of remark yesterday in the Abbey, that not a single Conservative of note was present during the ceremony.

Precisely at one o'clock the hearse arrived at the western entrance of the old Abbey, beneath the great door of which the corpse was borne, an honor only granted the peers of the realm. Inside the porch the procession arranged itself as follows:

Bailiff of Westminster,
The Almsmen of the Abbey,
Sixteen Boys of the Choir,
The Sub-Dean,
Canons Repton, Jennings and Cureton,
The Dean (Rev. T. French).

Those who had the honor of assisting as pall-bearers were:

The Lord Chancellor,
Lord John Russell,
The Dean of St. Paul's,
Sir David Dundas,
The Earl of Carlisle.
The Speaker of the House of Commons,
The Bishop of Oxford,
Sir Henry Holland,
Sir G. C. Lewis,
Earl Stanhope.

Lord Shelburne, who was to have attended in the place of the Marquis of Lansdowne, was prevented by illness from assisting.

Close behind the coffin, in order, followed the mourners we have already mentioned. On the right of the choir, in the stalls at the eastern extremity, some female relations of the great historian were seated, in deep mourning.

As the melancholy procession advanced up the nave, Dr. Croft's anthem, "I am the resurrection and the life," was sung with a solemn measured cadence, that had an inexpressibly touching effect, as the lament pealed forth through the Abbey, till its moaning echoes were almost lost in the distance. Arrived at the choir, the body was deposited inside the screen; the mourners and pall-bearers remained aside in the stalls, while the 39th Psalm, "I said I will take heed to my ways that I sin not with my tongue," was slowly chanted to Purcell's beautiful music. After the Lesson—"Now is Christ from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept"—was sung Spohr's magnificent hymn, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." During this most solemn cadence the mourners and pall-bearers again resumed their station round the corpse—the funeral procession was again formed, and proceeded with slow steps to where the grave was dug in Poets'-corner. Arrived here, the pall, which had up till then completely hidden the coffin, so as only to allow a glimpse of the coronet and arms to be seen on the foot of it, was removed, and the coffin for a moment deposited by the side of the grave. Then, as the mourners grouped themselves around it, it was again lifted over the narrow aperture and slowly sunk into its last resting place.

As is customary at all funerals, there was a moment's pause after the body had disappeared from view forever, and then arose Croft's touching anthem, "Man that is born of woman hath but a short time to live," the notes and words of which echoed along the lofty aisles like the wail of mourners. Purcell's "Thou knowest Lord" having also been slowly sung, then was said the prayer commencing "Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of His great mercy to take unto Himself the soul of our dear brother here departed," amid solemn silence. It was only broken by the sharp, quick rattle of the gravel as it fell upon the coffin. Then was sung Croft's anthem, "I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me write, 'From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.'" At the termination of all was sung Handel's magnificent hymn, "His body is buried in peace, but his name liveth evermore;" and this concluded the ceremony. All who had been assisting at the funeral then quitted the grave, and returned to the western entrance, the Dead March in Saul being played as the mourners slowly retired. Those who had been present but not taking part in the ceremony, were then allowed to pass the barricade and inspect the grave. As in most of our old cathedrals, there are no vaults beneath Westminster Abbey so that the grave is dug down at once into the gravel beneath the stones.

The grave of Macaulay seemed about ten feet deep, and almost as broad as it is long, so much so that the coffin appeared to rest in a deep square chamber of gravel. At one side on the left, was what seemed to be part of the side of another coffin, which, if it was a coffin at all, must have been that which contains the remains of no less a genius than Sheridan. In the uncertain light, however, which penetrated to the bottom of Macaulay's last resting place, it was hard to judge distinctly. In a few minutes after the ceremony was over, most of those who had assisted at it had acquitted the Abbey. Shortly after, preparations were made for filling in the grave and replacing the pavement of Poet's corner as it was before destined to make room for its latest tenant. In a few days more the slabs which mark the resting-place of other great men will be replaced; the monument of Addison restored, and leave perhaps only the freshly gilt letters to show where lies the great historian—the last but not the least of those who slumber in Poets' corner, "whose bodies are buried in peace, but whose names live for evermore."

The outer coffin is formed of polished elm, and it encloses a leaden coffin and shell. The lid is divided into three compartments; the upper one contains, on an engraved plate, the arms of the deceased peer. The shield bears two arrows and two buckles, and has two pelicans as supporters. The crest is a boot with a spur, surmounted with the usual coronet. The motto of the coat of arms is "Dulce Periculum." The second compartment contains the following:

The Right Honorable
Thomas Babington
Macaulay,
Baron Macaulay of Rothwell,
Born 25th of Oct.,
1800,
Died 28th Dec.,
1859.

The little spot selected for the resting place of a man whose fame now fills the world, is at the innermost part of Poets' Corner, at the very foot of Westmacott's monument to that genius whom Macaulay delighted to honor—the mild and gentle Addison. It is only the monument, however, which is here, for Addison himself sleeps far away from the great Essayist of the 19th century, in the north aisle of Henry VII.'s chapel. Closest to the coffin of Lord Macaulay is that of the celebrated Dr. Parr, who, in his lifetime, possessed, perhaps, even a greater amount of learning than our brilliant historian, but who, unlike him, went down to the grave without leaving a single record of the vastness of his intellectual stores behind. Almost by the side of the grave which will be closed to-day rest the remains of him "who died friendless and lorn," the still more gifted Sheridan.

By the side of the latter are the graves of Samuel Johnson and David Garrick, while at the foot, and almost overlooking the dark aperture opened for the late Lord Macaulay, is the monument of Campbell—at whose funeral Macaulay was himself a pall bearer.—Close beside it, also, is the Gothic monument of Chaucer, facing which is the slab which marks the resting place of Spencer, with the half worn-out inscription.—"Here lies, expecting the second coming of our Savior Jesus, the body of Edmund Spencer—the prince of poets in his time, whose Divine spirit needs no other witness than the works he left behind him." Undistinguished by monument or tablet of any kind lie the remains of Beaumont, the dramatist. Not far from Macaulay's grave is the small pavement (not the original which was worn out, and replaced some time since), which bears what we may call the words and the title "Oh rare Ben Johnson!" while a little more distant is the monument of Cowley. The graves or monuments of Pope, Prior, Gay, Dryden, Milton, Butler, Mason, Davenant, Camden, Congreve, and others, though all in Poets' Corner, are more distant from that where the poet and historian was laid to rest yesterday.

Letter from Hon. Joshua R. Giddings.

Editor of The Cleveland Morning Leader:

SIR:—I see in the Democratic papers of Cleveland a notice that I am not yet arrested on the warrant of the Senate's Committee to investigate the Harper's Ferry invasion, in consequence of the process having been issued to the ex-Marshal of Ohio, instead of the acting Marshal.

I wish to say that I have never believed that I should be called on to go before that Committee. I do not now believe it. I also wish to say that I look with no small degree of contempt upon those efforts of the Democratic press and Democratic party to intimidate honest and unsuspecting people.

If Mr. Mason, or his Committee, desire to see me at Washington, they shall be gratified on signifying that desire, in any manner that I can recognize as respectful or legal.

I am now engaged until the 9th of February, and I hope to return to Ohio on the 10th to remain at my own residence on the 11th and 12th. If I do not then hear from Mr. Mason or his Committee, I expect to start West, to fill my engagements in Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

But if they desire to see me before that day, any letter or process will reach me in New York on the 6th of February, or at Arcade, Wyoming county, on the 28th of the present month. But I will thank the Democratic press not to publish any more ridiculous blunders of their officers; or if they do, I hope they will not associate my name with them. Very respectfully,
J. R. GIDDINGS.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 21, 1860.

HAY CROPS.—I notice that the State Board of Agriculture awarded to John Laughrey, of Adams County, a premium for six tons and 1,200 pounds of hay from two acres.—That was a good crop, but since a much larger yield was properly certified to at the late Washington County Fair, I think it worthy of being put on record. Mr. Eph. Gould, of this county, raised the present season from one acre, eight thousand five hundred and forty pounds of timothy hay at one cutting. This amounts to eighteen hundred and ninety pounds more per acre than Mr. Laughrey's crop. I think it the largest yield I ever heard of at one cutting. And more than this, on the 15th of October, at the time of our fair, Mr. Gould thought there was grass enough (aftermath), on the ground to produce fully fifteen hundred lbs of hay. The secret of Mr. Gould's great crop is—he never pastures his meadows. The great aftermath spoken of above, protects the stools throughout the winter, and the grass gets an early start in the spring. In case of drouth, the aftermath serves as a mulch, and under any circumstances makes a good manure. Meadows that are never pastured will last much longer than the pastured, beside giving the larger yield.

It was Dr. Kirtland, I think, who called the attention of your readers, years ago, to the fact that timothy meadows were ruined by pasturage from the fact that the bulb of the plant just above the surface of the ground, was destroyed, and with it, of course, the plant.

There is only one objection to allowing the aftermath to remain on the meadow. When the field or meadow mouse is numerous, it furnished them a fine harbor. Every farmer should keep two rat terrier dogs for the purpose of keeping the farm clear of such pests. W. W. Rathbone, Clifton Nursery, Marietta, Ohio, December 23, 1859.—Ohio Farmer.

THE SKY AN INDICATOR OF THE WEATHER.—The colors of the sky at particular times afford wonderfully good guidance. Not only does a rosy sunset presage fair weather, and a ruddy sunrise bad weather, but there are other tints which speak with equal clearness and accuracy. A bright yellow sky in the evening indicates wind; a pale yellow, wet; a neutral grey color constitutes a favorable sign in the evening, an unfavorable one in the morning. The clouds, again, are full of meaning in themselves. If their forms are soft, undefined and feathery, the weather will be fine; if the edges are hard, sharp and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep, unusual hues betoken wind or rain; while the more quiet and delicate tints bespeak fair weather. Simple as these maxims are, the British Board of Trade has thought fit to publish them for the use of sea-faring men.

MR. IRVING himself once saw General Washington. He said there was some celebration going on in New York, and the General was there to participate in the ceremony. "My nurse," continued Mr. Irving, "a good old Scotchwoman, was very anxious for me to see him, and held me up in her arms as he rode past. This, however, did not satisfy her; so the next day, when walking with me in Broadway, she espied him in a shed; she seized my hand, and darting in, exclaimed, in her bland Scotch, 'Please your excellency, here's a bairn that's called after ye!' Gen. Washington then turned his benevolent face full upon me, smiled, laid his hand upon my head, and gave me his blessing, which," added Mr. Irving, earnestly, "I have reason to believe has attended me through life. I was but five years old, yet I can feel that hand even now."

A MODEL SPEECH MAKER.—The Papal nuncio's address to the Emperor Napoleon, at the new year's reception—though he was commissioned to speak for the whole corps diplomatique, as well as for himself, was just three lines in length—and not more than fifteen or twenty words. American Congressmen would do well to emulate the example of the nuncio. "Talk" is the besetting sin of the universal Yankee nation. If an American orator had been chosen to address the Emperor, we have no doubt he would have talked at him for half an hour at least. Wisdom is not always allied to volubility; and it is true now as in the days of Solomon, the king, that many words darken counsel.—N. Y. Express.

FATAL MISTAKE—A MOTHER POISONS HER CHILD.—On Friday night, a little daughter of Mrs. Edgeworth, living at 539 Canal street, was taken sick, and the mother mixed and administered to her a dose of rhubarb, and what she supposed to be magnesia. In a short time the child was taken very sick, and expired in great agony. It was then ascertained that the mother had administered about two teaspoonfuls of arsenic in mistake for magnesia. The packages were distinctly labeled, but unfortunately the woman was unable to read. Coroner Jackman held an inquest in the case, and the jury being of the opinion that the occurrence was accidental, rendered a verdict to that effect.—N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

MILK CAN BE KEPT with all the cream in it, as when first drawn from the cows. You all know that if you can prevent the cream from rising, the milk will be more palatable and healthy with the particles of cream mixed through it, than milk fresh from the cow with the fresh taste and odor. To prepare milk in this way take it warm from the cow, set it in a cool place, and stir it continually until all the animal heat is out, and no cream will rise after that operation. Try it and see how much it will be improved.

KNOWLEDGE FOR THE PEOPLE.—Some wag has perpetrated the following.

It has been calculated that the hairs on the tip of a dog's tail, of the average length of fifteen inches, (tail, not hair) are made to traverse 25,438 miles by the simple act of wagging, during an ordinary happy life of nine years, two months and eleven days, which is the mean lifetime of a dog.

A WISE PRECAUTION.—The Salisbury Mills, Massachusetts, in which are employed nearly a thousand persons, have recently built upon the sides of their mills, iron balustrades from each story, with ladders running from them to the ground, for the better protection of the lives of their employees.

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, Secretary's Office.
The Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin hereby certifies that the foregoing statement has been compared with the original instrument on file in this office, and the same is a true and correct copy thereof, and of the whole of such original.
The "Ætna Insurance Company," of Hartford, Conn., having complied with the requirements of Sections One and Five of an act entitled "An act to regulate Insurance Companies not incorporated by the State of Wisconsin," approved March 17th, 1859; and having also paid into the State Treasury the sum of seventeen hundred, five and thirty-six one-hundredths dollars, being three per cent upon the gross amount of premiums received in the State of Wisconsin in the year 1859, as per their report.
Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid, the Secretary of State of Wisconsin hereby certifies that the said Ætna Insurance Company, of Hartford, when it shall have complied with the requirements of section three of said Act, may take risks, receive premiums, and transact the business of an Insurance Company in this State from this date until the thirty-first day of January, A. D., 1861.
[L. S.] In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the Capitol, in Madison, this twenty-eighth day of January, A. D. 1860.

WINTER SUNSET.

By graceful scrolls of ice-like, pearly blue
And streaks of violet-red, like new-born flame,
Damp heaps of gathered stubble leaping through,
Pale gold in lengthening bars, and many a hue,
Shifting too suddenly for eye to mark,
On leaden-colored wave-clouds, thick and dark,
As nearer still the hastening sunset drew,
I knew when dreary, wild November came.

With musing heart I watched the beautiful sight,
While the coal brightened, while the young fire blazed,
Till all had vanished, twilight sunk to night,
And star by star hung out its lonely light,
O'er fields of dark to stretch a monarch ray,
Like beacon light across the mariner's way;
But ere the evening glory took its flight,
Some peaceful thoughts breathed on me as I gazed.

Dread not of earthly change the wintry night;
Be faith in God thy bosom's constant guest;
Go not self-panoplied to stormy flight,
Nor stay encastled in presumptuous might;
Thy God's pavilion stretches o'er thee still;
In coming darkness he will work his will;
With lifted eye behold the clouds now bright
With hues that harbinger the pilgrim's rest.

Warm housed, with curtains down, and fresh-trimmed light,
Or hurrying home with mantle-shielded eyes,
Shivering and chattering, we miss the sight
Of beauty in the wintry sky, more bright
Than in the spring or summer time we see;
And as a vision came these thoughts to me
In the fair eve of that November night
When looking on that sheen of numberless dyes.

TWENTY STEPS

TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

This repast was a very romantic affair.—Eating boned turkey and pomegranate jelly, and tongue sandwiches, on a mountain top between draughts of zephyrs and spring water, is encroaching on the domain and habits of the Olympians, and it is no wonder a punishment was meted out to us by the angry and insulted gods. Hartington returned shortly after, and received the bantering of the party with ill disguised anger.

As his flaming eye fell on me for a moment with well aimed malice, it occurred to me for the first time, that when he had called Blanche, on the hill side, he supposed she heard him and had turned away voluntarily. It was no doubt aggravating for him to return and find her at my side at the table.—She unconcerned, apparently, about his absence.

The dinner progressed, there was the usual accompaniments, of champagne, toasts, both threadbare and extemporaneous, a speech, a recitation, and a great deal of wit flashing round the circle. All were in the highest spirits, except Hartington; he alone spoke in monosyllables, and once or twice gave expression to sentiments with a deep meaning, and which I alone understood. Jerry, whose dexterity at decapitating champagne bottles was called in question as much by his own partiality to that beverage as aught else, proposed: "The Belle of the season the queen of the Spa"—every glass was poised—there was no doubt in any one's mind as to who was meant—and he added, as the company proceeded to respond: "and here's to the young genius and love that shall win her." The effect of this speech was to send the belle away from the group, and shortly afterward the ladies all followed her.

"Now, then, I call for the response. Lem what are you about, come!"

Hartington rose to his feet.

"Gentlemen," he said, "allow me to observe, the harmony of our party has already been destroyed by the intrusion of elements not expected; if that speech was intended as a further breach an l an insult to me, permit me to respond to it, in the only manly way, by saying that the author and subject of it, are neither of them gentlemen.

His further remarks were lost in the interrupting uproar of laughter and responses.—Jerry insisted upon saying that owing to the peculiar circumstances, it was utterly out of the question for him to inflict a horsewhipping on the gentleman at present, but he hoped at the earliest convenient time, on the morrow, he should be so happy as to be able to deal out personal chastisement—and Hartington left the table. I had risen and was glaring at him with a strange mixture of ferocity and contempt, which as he departed subsided into a laugh, in which all the gentlemen joined, and the derisive sounds must have reached his ears and scored another debt against me. These proceedings were all in themselves excessively silly and boyish, but some latitude must be allowed to young men when the restraints of society are thrown off to a great extent. This little episode, however, broke up the charm, and in spite of Jerry's conviviality, a gloom settled upon the party. The scene of the bivouac was deserted, the ladies sought for, and preparations made to return.

I started off among the shrubbery on one side of the hill, not knowing exactly whither I went, and strange to say, I again encountered Blanche alone, and upon one of the same ledges where we had but a few hours before stood in company.

"Have you returned to this spot on account of the reminiscence?" I asked as I joined her.

"I returned to see the sun go down," she answered, "see it—

——'Is glowing like the seal of God
Upon the close of day.'"

I do not remember now, all that passed between us, but the short time that we stood there watching the landscape mellow beneath the burning rays, seems now to me like a golden dream, and when the long shadows of the trees and hills crept out across the amber plains, I remembered that the party must be almost all departed, and reminding Blanche of the hour, helped her across the obstacles and accompanied her down the hill side with a sweet consciousness that some fairy had transformed us into a Paul and Virginia. I cannot reproduce all the poetry of our conversation, in which there was no love breathed on my part, but a great deal of tenderness; suffice it to say, that I kept her hand in mine when there were no obstacles to surmount, and caught the rich blush on her neck and face when the intervening light accompanied some meaning remarks. But it was soon over; at the foot of the eminence we parted, and in the company of Bell, I rode back to the town.

That same night, as I stood on the piazza of one of the hotels, enjoying the pleasurable emotions that were yet pulsating in my breast, one of the servants came up behind me, and asking me my name, placed a small note in my hand. I did not scrutinize him closely, a when I had torn open the paper he had gone. Its contents simply were—

"Lem—Come to the Iodine Spring in half an hour. Blanche."

This was written in a lady's hand, but my immediate conviction was that it was a forgery. The Iodine Spring was in a remote part of the village, and it was then nearly midnight. However, I determined to go, notwithstanding my suspicions. It might be from Blanche, and if not, I was anxious to see the end of it. So I hurried over to the Congress, satisfied myself that Blanche was not there, with some little difficulty found Jerry, and communicating my suspicions and the contents of the note, we set out together. Jerry agreed with me without hesitation that it was a forgery;—neither of us would attribute such a breach of propriety to Miss Therber. Fifteen minutes walk brought us in the vicinity of Iodine Spring, away up in the Northern section of the village. As we approached the building, I had Jerry sit down on the road side, as I would go up alone, and leaving him nonchalantly smoking a cigar on the spot I had indicated, I made my way alone to the deserted spring house. If I had any doubts before of the authorship of the letter, it is certain I no longer expected to meet Blanche at this spot. It was the most out-of-the-way and deserted of all the waters, and at this hour of the night, with the moon well down in the west, was positively gloomy. Not a soul could I find within or about the building, and after some delay I walked in among the trees at its rear. I had not fairly entered the shade, when, in spite of my precaution, I received a powerful blow on the side of my head from behind, which felled me to the earth, and before I could utter a sound, two figures beset me with a volley of violent blows on my head and face; stunned and bruised, I was at their mercy; their iron fists were effectual in silencing me, I felt the warm blood gushing over my face, and still the cruel, crushing blows descended, until, no doubt, thinking me dead, they desisted and vanished. There was a moment of consciousness in which I heard the hissing words: "Keep out of my path in future," and recognized the voice of Hartington. I knew no more until I awoke the next morning in a furnished room whither Jerry had conveyed me. I sprung from the bed, and went to the glass: there was a cut on my upper lip, my eyes were swollen and blackened, and a bandage about my head, and a sensitive spot under it, completed the representation. I felt for my watch to ascertain the time; it was gone; I knew that Jerry had taken care of it, and set about to arrange my toilet; with the exception of a bewildering headache, and an acute pain in my side where I had been kicked, I was well enough.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.
"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER'S new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.
"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.
"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks,
DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.
This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,
Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties, [Tonic and Diuretic] which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly every thing that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.
A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.
Put up in Quart Bottles, in Cases of one and two dozen each, and sold throughout the world by Druggists, Grocers, &c.

The Rev. Wm. Hosmer, editor of "The Northern Independent," Auburn, N. Y.; the Rev. E. H. Crossey, D. D., Rector of St. Peter's Church, of Auburn, N. Y.; the Rev. R. H. Ives, Chaplain of the Auburn State Prison; the Rev. Spencer M. Rice, Rector, New Bedford, Mass.; the Rev. Allen Steele, New York Conference; the Rev. Samuel Nicholas, East Genesee Conference, N. Y.; the Rev. P. S. Pratt, Dorset, Vt.; the Rev. John E. Roble, Buffalo; A. C. Hart, Esq., Utica, N. Y.; the Hon. Neal Dow, Portland, Me.; the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, South Bend, Ind.; the Hon. George Humphreys, N. Y.; Henry D. Cook, Esq., Editor of The Ohio State Journal, Columbus, Ohio; the Hon. R. H. Graham, Moline, Ill.; the Hon. Thomas J. Chase, Monticello, Fla.; the Hon. Joseph Benedict, Utica, N. Y.; Wm. Bristol, Esq., Utica, N. Y.; A. S. Pond, Esq., Utica, N. Y.; James Plunkett, Esq., Nashville, Tenn.

LIST OF SPECIFIC REMEDIES.
No. 1.—For Fever, Congestion, and Inflammation.
No. 2.—For Worm Fever, Worm Colic, Wetting the bed.
No. 3.—For Colic, Crying, Teething, and Wakefulness of infants.
No. 4.—For Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum, and Summer Complaints.
No. 5.—For Colic, Gripings, Dysentery, or Bloody Flux.
No. 6.—For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.
No. 7.—For Coughs, Colds, Influenza, and Sore Throat.
No. 8.—For Tooth-ache, Face-ache, and Nuralgia.
No. 9.—For Headache, Vertigo, Heat and Fullness of the Head.
No. 10.—DYSPEPSIA PILLS.—For Weak and Deranged Stomach, Constipation, and Liver Complaint.
No. 11.—FOR FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, Scanty, Painful, or Suppressed Periods.
No. 12.—For Leucorrhea, Profuse Menses, and Bearing Down of Females.
No. 13.—For Croup, Hoarse Cough, Bad Breathing.
No. 14.—SALT RHEUM PILLS.—For Erysipelas, Eruptions, Pimples on the Face.
No. 15.—RHEUMATIC PILLS.—For Pain, Lameness, or Soreness in the Chest, Back, Loins, or Limbs.
A.—For Fever and Ague, Chil. Fever, Dumb Ague, Old Mismanaged Agues.
P.—For Piles, Blind or Bleeding, Internal or External.
O.—For Sore, Weak, or Inflamed Eyes and Eyelids; Failing, Weak, or Blurred Sight.
C.—For Catarrh, of long standing or recent, either with obstruction or profuse discharge.
W. C.—For Whooping Cough, abating its violence and shortening its course.

In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammation, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance.—Often the cure of a single chronic disease, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of the Nineteenth Century,
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

SAYS THE ST. LOUIS, (MO.) DEMOCRAT: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic.—Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1855.
Professor O. J. Wood & Co:
GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has reassumed its natural color and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

Baltimore, Jan. 23, 1855.
WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally loved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, January 12, 1855.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.
Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO. Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market st., St. Louis, Mo.
And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. nov23

!! SOMETHING NEW!!
D. B. DeLAND & CO.'S
!! CHEMICAL SALERATUS.

"THE VERY BEST ARTICLE OF Saleratus now in use. Much has been said of the injurious effect of Saleratus upon the health, but nothing can be more harmless than perfectly pure Saleratus when properly used. THIS Saleratus IS PERFECTLY PURE and is refined by a process entirely OUR OWN, by which all impurities are removed.

!! DEALERS AND CONSUMERS EVERYWHERE!!
Please try it. It is warranted in all cases or no sale." Also!! D. B. De LAND & CO'S "Double Refined saleratus is far superior to most other brands of Saleratus now in use.

"Consumers of Saleratus should be careful to get that having the name of D. B. De LAND & Co. on the wrapper, as they will thus obtain a strictly pure article. These brands of Saleratus are for sale by the principal Grocers in this City and Dealers generally throughout the United States and Canadas."

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

THURSDAY EVENING, February 2d, 1860.

Money Matters.

During the past few days a very considerable amount of currency has been converted into Exchange, creating a better supply of the latter and a temporary scarcity of the former at the banks. The current rate of Exchange, however, is still 2 per cent. premium, without much prospect of an immediate reduction.

Commercial.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Flour, bbls | 597 | Hides, lbs | 1,540 |
| Wheat, bus | 4,328 | Hides, No | 58 |
| Oats, bus | 509 | Butter, lbs | 370 |
| Barley, bus | 218 | Poultry, lbs | 265 |
| Corn, bus | 92 | Sundries, lbs | 27,985 |
| Rye, bus | 41 | Highwines, bbls | 20 |
| Grass seed, bus | 128 | Dressed hogs, No | 23 |

The wheat market still remains very dull, sellers being unwilling to submit to any material decline, and buyers generally disinclined to operate to any extent until prices assume more stability at the East. A good deal of anxiety is manifested as to the character of the next steamer's news, which will probably have some bearing on the future course of the market. There was scarcely any wheat bought to store to-day, and the milling demand was not brisk, owing to the short supply of water. A few small lots of Extra sold at $1,05 and of Red Winter at $1,03@1,05 for common to fair qualities. The same uncertainty which hangs over the wheat market, influences flour, and we have no sales of this article to note to-day. Oats held their own, selling steadily at 34@35c delivered. Nothing of any account doing in other grain. Timothy seed is firm at previous quotations.

The trade in dressed hogs for packing is nearly over. All that arrive are taken at good prices. To day A. L. HUTCHINSON, Esq., sold Messrs. LAYTON & PLANKINTON 23 hogs averaging 253 lbs at $6,50 per cwt.—the highest price of the season. The hogs were shipped by GEO. GRANNIS from Davis, Illinois. Mr. HUTCHINSON has received 661 hogs from the same place this season, averaging upwards of 200 lbs each.

PRODUCE TO BE DELIVERED WITHIN 48 HOURS AFTER SALE.—The question as to what time a seller could claim for the delivery of produce after sale, was the subject of considerable controversy amongst the members of the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting to-day, and finally settled by the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That all sales of produce must be delivered within forty-eight (48) hours after 1 o'clock P. M. on the day of sale, unless otherwise specially agreed between the parties.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—Receipts, flour 1485 bbls; wheat 8490 bush; corn 12505 bush; oats 6710 bush; rye 232 bush; barley 5315 bush.

The receipts of hogs, live and dressed, to-day amounted to 445. The market for dressed hogs was bare, and prices were fair, with sales at 6,20@6,50c. The receipts of live hogs were very trifling, and prices firm.

The demand for mess pork continues active, and we have to note another advance to-day of 50c, sales being made at 16,50. At the close, however, holders were firm at 17,00. Bulk Meats are scarce and firm at 6¾@6½c packed. Lard is in good demand at 10c, at which several lots were sold; but a round lot of prime leaf would command an advance.

Flour was more active and a shade easier, sales being made at 4,70@4,80 for good to choice Spring extra. Wheat was in better demand and advanced ½c. Sales of No. 1 being made at 99c, and No. 2 Spring at 97@97½ in store. Corn was in limited supply and the market firm at 48@48½c for No. 1; 44½ for No. 2; and 41½@42 for rejected. Oats quiet. Rye and Barley unchanged. Seeds rather dull, except for Hungarian Grass, which advanced 5c. Highwines declined ½@1c.—Press & Tribune.

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

THURSDAY EVENING, Feb. 2d—7 P. M.

FLOUR—Dull and heavy. No sales, with the exception of 50 bbls Rye flour at $4,25.

WHEAT—Market dull and unsettled. Sales 50 bus No. 1 delivered at 99c; 100 bus Club delivered at $1,01; 150 bus do at $1,03; 830 bus Extra at $1,03; 250 bus common Red Winter at $1,07; 250 bus fair do at $1,05.

OATS—Sales 300 bus at 34c; 150 bus at 34½c; 300 bu. do at 35c.

CORN—No sales. Shelled 55@56c; Ear 50c.

RYE—50@55c.

BARLEY—Nominal.

GRASS SEED—Firm. Sales 35 bus prime Timothy at $2,75.

POTATOES—Selling at 50@60c.

BUTTER—Plenty, firkin selling at 10@11c; crock and roll 12@13c.

HIDES—Are a shade higher. The prices now being paid are as follows: Green frozen 6½@6¾c; green salted 7@7½c; dry salted 11@12c; dry flint 13@14c.

HIGHWINES—21c.

RAILROAD RECEIPTS.

CITY LAND OFFICE.

VALUABLE PROPERTY WILL BE exchanged for a good Farm. That new Brick Hotel, "The Phelps House," corner of Chestnut and Fourth streets, Second Ward, lot 75 by 150. The building is four stories, with stores on first floor; House contains some fifty rooms. The said "Phelps House" is situated in center of business, on principal business street in Second Ward. Will exchange the above property for a good Farm and lands near some village where there are schools for children. Or will give a lease for five or ten years on said House at a low rent and exchange the furniture for a small Farm and Stock. Mr. Phelps is at present keeping the House. His health being such that he cannot give it that attention the business requires, is the reason why he offers to make the exchange.

For further particulars call at our office, corner of East Water and Michigan streets.

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1851. Second Patent, March 11th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increase of width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or return of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governors continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And, as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but, really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of whom are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR

FROM

THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,

(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used whenever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D. Ipswille, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the third stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Norristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Marts, Columbus, O.

"It, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he possesses, and he can live to extreme old age."—J. W. Beck, ...

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination.

Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. J. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in a large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,

IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination prepared by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original formula.

For sale, Wholesale and Retail, by HENRY FESS, Jr., Milwaukee; who is authorized to supply THE TRADE at New York prices.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.

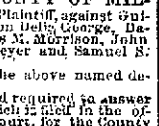

Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
